STUDENT NEWS FROM TOOLEYBUC CENTRAL SCHOOL

14th November 2014 Term 4 Week 6

Principal's Thoughts Bruce Nield Relieving Principal

Parent and Community Surveys

There has been a low response so far to surveys sent to parents about KidsMatter. For us to develop a shared vision for the education of your children as part of the New School Plan process there will be an unusually large number of surveys sent out between now and the end of Term 1. As this is the beginning of new way of ensuring that parent and community feedback is regularly received, we need to ensure it accessible to all.

Previously the school has had good feedback with online surveys, but not every family has internet access at our school (or in some cases, reliable internet access). More surveys will be generated soon in an online format, but as they are released these surveys will be announced on Facebook, the Bridge and weekly newsletters with paper copies retained at the front office for those who are offline or would prefer paper copies to complete. The more feedback we get from parents the better we can continue to build upon our strong foundations in learning, teaching and student well-being.

Summer Conditions

Students need to remember that 'no hat, no play' is in effect - as we have lost a lot of shade with our trees being lopped recently, the main primary playground is sunnier than usual. Teachers will move students into shaded areas where they have no hat or they think the temperature in an unshaded area is too high.

Bush Dance

Thanks to all who participated in a wonderful evening last night with the Billy Tea Bush Dance crew. This night was thoroughly enjoyed by those who attended and a special thanks to Julie McNab who organised this event.

Billy Tea Bush Dance, gets the students tapping to the music.

RSL Scholarship

Cody was awarded the RSL Sub-Branch's annual Award. Cody attended the Remembrance Day service in Swan Hill to lay a wreath and was presented with his Remembrance Day Award by RSL President Barry Townley.

Merit Scheme

To reward our students' positive behaviour Tooleybuc Central School runs a strong Merit Scheme. Students are awarded 'Merit Awards' during the school year and an accumulation of these merits equates to levels.

Bronze Level	10 Merits
Silver Level	Bronze plus and extra 20 Merits
Gold Level	Silver plus an extra 30 Merits.

Primary students are given a 'Lucky Dip' at the achievement of each level, secondary students are given a $2.00 voucher to spend at the canteen, then primary and secondary are presented with a certificate at our Whole School Assembly. Those students who achieve Gold Level are invited to attend our End of Year Merit Excursion.

Primary News

Simon Dunn (Assistant Principal)

Primary Assembly

The primary Assembly for Term 4 will be held on Thursday 4th of December, starting at 2:00pm. The Year 5 students who are nominating themselves for a Leadership position will be giving their speeches at this assembly and the Year 5/6 class will also be performing as well.

Bush Dance

It was great to see all of the students joining in during the day as they learnt some of the dances for the Bush Dance that was held on Thursday. A big thankyou to Mrs McNab who organised the event.

Children and adults all joined in learning the dances.

Hats, Sunscreen and Water Bottles

The weather is certainly warming up and it is very important that students make sure that they are being sun safe and drinking lots of water during the day. Please ensure that your child is protected from the sun and brings a water bottle to school with them every day.

Year 5/6

The end of the year is certainly fast approaching. It is great to see how much students have learnt throughout the year and to see the improvement in the quality of their writing in particular. We have been very busy preparing for the class performance where the students have written the scripts, created the backdrops as well as choreographed the dances for your entertainment. It would be great to see as many people as possible attend the assembly.

Below is a small sample of some of the writing that has recently been created.

Assessment Story

Blood was dripping from my knife onto the burning, yellow sand beneath my feet. I slip the knife into my belt and the blood stains my black pants. The waves start to roll in and wash the blood off the sand. I hear engines coming closer and closer; I sprint into the bushes and hide.

The man that steps out of the car is as tall as a tree and his pants are too short. As soon as I see him I know instantly who he is. My hands start to shake and my heart is pounding out of my chest. He can't find me hear, not now anyway, he'll know I did it. I look around for a way to escape and see a clearing. I'll have to sprint or I will get caught. The leaves start to crunch under my feet as he starts to chase me; if he doesn't see my face I'm safe. I quickly duck into a nearby bush, he doesn't notice. I'm puffing as my heart slows down, the beach was nice but I can't stay there its too open, I'll be found and taken away.

Later that day I'm walking through the calm rain forest and I hear a roar. It doesn't sound like a normal animal roar but it is still loud and fierce. It continues on for a while longer until I figure out what it is, it's the roar of a waterfall. I slowly turn to try and figure out the direction, when I do find the direction I start to jog that way. My breath gets shorter and my legs get tired, just as I'm about to give up, I see something, an apple tree. "Why is there an apple tree in the rain forest?" I ask myself. "Who cares?" I sprint, jump into the apple tree and start climbing. The only apple is up the very top, it is small and green, but its food. As I bite into it, it's as hard as a rock but I eat it anyway because it's the only source of food I have.

The light starts to dim so I look up and the sky is turning black. I decide to climb the old apple tree again. I curl up my body close to the top in a little somewhat of a cage where all the branches meet. The tree rocking back and forth puts me to sleep with slight help from the roaring waterfall in the distance. "Tomorrow." The word rolls of my lips. "I will find the waterfall tomorrow." My eyes slowly shut and the last thing I see that day is the bold, dark night sky.

I wake to loud squawking of birds and a lizard on my chest. I sit up, a pout on my face and my eyebrows facing down. I wack the lizard of my chest so it falls out of the tree.

Fight to the Death

As I sit there in the in the darkness, my eyes sharply look left to right. A bullet hole in my making Blood pouring out. My eyes turn red like the devil; my fists were clinched with rage. "Revenge" I voice was full of hate rid.

I force myself to my feet but then fell back down like a bundle of bricks.

My arms and legs feel like they're chained to the ground. Suddenly a bright light appeared in front of me. As the door slung open a creepy man came from the darkness "here's your food" it was a voice like his voice box was ripped out. "Good bye" the man smashed the door shut and the room went silent.

"NO! NO!" I scream with frustration, I'm all alone now I think I should just crawl into a ball and die "that what he'll just won't" I say with a fierce voice. I try to pull myself to my feet, but my bones are too weak and I grumble back to the ground.

"You won't get out a faded voice said, "I've been here for five years"

"Were you" I look everywhere but I can't find him.

"You're on top of me "I quickly jump off him like a kangaroo "Ah that better I couldn't really breath that way I wasn't talking proper" "that little F eats us alive."

"What" "eats us alive"?

"Yes he chews us to the bones"

The voice came back "dinner time" he started nibbling on that other guy, I latched onto the creepy man graving is throat, but he still hung on.

"Just leave "the man screamed trying to fight the creepy man. By Sam

Heroes of Olympus

Blood starts to trickle down my leg as Enchiladas hits me with the back of his hand. The giant starts to laugh "You will never defeat me Jason Grace." He said. "You will die trying"

Look over at my friends Leo, Piper and Coach Hedge, Just lying there, unconscious. I start to think to myself. "I'm doing this for my friends, and the world." I start to run down the mountain to where Enchiladas is and I flip my coin into the air. When it's landed back in the palm of my hand, it's no longer a coin but a spear. I finally get close enough to Enchiladas and jump into the air, summoning lightning onto the spear, and throwing it into the centre of Enchiladas' chest. All in the exact same moment. Then the golden blood of immortals trickles out of the spot I hit him in. As a final yell he screams in a roaring voice.

"Noooooooooooo!" And tumbles back into the earth. By Paddy.

Snake bite

Blood started trickling down my leg as I was walking cautiously in the beating sun as a giant wobbly brown snake charging straight at me but as I turn around its teeth sink into my heavy sweated leg and everything when black.

As I slowly wake the light smashers into my eyes and forces water out of them once I fully open my watery eyes was an ear pitching siren and a croaky voice that says he's awake he's awake then the feeling rushes through my spine I am alive. As I try and sit up the pain rushes through my nerves and into my brain and forces a scream out of my mouth. By Brees

Survive

Blood sprayed everywhere as the wild animals ripped apart a hunk of meat. I stood there watching until I finally had the guts to fire. I let go of the arrow. As it sawed throw the air my father patted me on the back. But that was long gone. I was only three when I went for my first hunt. I was now 16 and ever since dad was gone mum had never felt the same.

I put on my father's old leather jacket, grabbed my arrows and met with my friend at the town square. Together each morning we went out hunting for our families. Today was the day that marks 15 years from the tragic accident in the mine. As Luke throws a rock into the bush I quickly fired an arrow. It sawed into the air striking the bird in the heart. Blood sprayed everywhere but where we were. I ran over and grabbed the bird. We shot another five and then went down to the creek. I tied a piece of string on a stick and put some bird on it. The birds only attracted cod but that was all I needed.

Later that day as we were laying in the meadow we herd the monthly announcement. The anural ceremony will commence at sun set. As I hurried home I quickly sold the fish at the market for 12 dollars and then hurried home to get ready.

As I walked throw the door I saw Lucy standing there in a beautiful blue gown. It had been mine when I was little but now it was hers. The rule was if you were not dressed you would be banish from the land.

As everyone crowed around the town square madden quall walked on the old stage. On our walk to the town square a boy throw a ball forcing us into the mud, me, Lucy and mum. As we stood up we were covered in mud.

"Good afternoon." Said madden qual as we kept on walking. "I see your all in good manner." She said as her head turned looking at every one in the crowd. "You." She said pointing at us. By Sara

Ben Miller (PDHPE Teacher)

In PDHPE this term students have been playing summer sports with great involvement in cricket in the past weeks. Tennis and fishing are going to be offered for the next few weeks during school sport. Students will receive a water safety note this week if they would like to go fishing for sport.

I am pleased to say we are now running a stage 6 Sports Lifestyle and Recreation class in which we are looking at Aquatics as it is an important area to study for the upcoming summer. These students will be analysing what makes a water environment safe and will receive practical time completing mock rescues and stroke correction. Swim school will be run for Years Foundation - Nine in Week 10 so students will have the opportunity to improve their swimming and water safety skills.

Preschool has resumed again this week and is back in full swing. We welcome any new families that are joining us for this term.

During the last week of term 3, our 4 year old group enjoyed a visit from the reptile man, prior to their letter land party which they thoroughly enjoyed.

This week Greg Cruickshank, has been to preschool taking our group and individual photos.

During the holidays, there was some paving done at preschool, which looks great.

We look forward to a fun filled term 4.
